1. This Side Letter is effective through the end of the Spring 2022 semester.
2. Should the need for this Side Letter Agreement extend beyond the Spring 2022 semester, the Parties may mutually agree to extend this Agreement in additional 30 day increments.
3. Instructors who adopt the online format will be paid. Instructors who do not teach online will not be paid unless they decide to take leave.
 - The District shall adhere to and provide all leaves required by the COVID-19 Supplemental Paid Sick Leave and any other applicable laws in addition to any other statutory or contractual leaves to which faculty are entitled.
 - Faculty members who are unable to teach in a modified format may go on leave or partial leave and use accrued personal necessity leave to cover the absence.
 - Any accrued sick leave may be used as personal necessity leave during the temporary change of operations to allow faculty to utilize additional days of sick leave, and will not be precedent setting.
4. Faculty members who go on leave due to inability to transition to or maintain remote instruction or services must notify the Program Director or Designee as soon as possible.
5. Any additional changes to workload or calendar, will be negotiated between the parties.
6. To recognize the additional workload and professional development associated with the transition of traditionally face to face courses to a remote modality, faculty members who transition courses to a remote modality may claim up to four (4) additional hours of compensation per section that they teach at their normal hourly rate.
7. Hours for pay will be claimed by submitting an agreed-upon form to the District by 03/31/22.
